

Looking to do a Year of Service?

BECOME A VOLUNTEER TEACHER

AT YAP CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL IN THE WESTERN PACIFIC ISLANDS

TEACHING

- Small classes (20-24) filled with eager, bright students plus mentoring equals the perfect place to learn to teach
- Coach sports, moderate or start your own club

COMMUNITY

- Live in an intentional volunteer community of recent college graduates off-campus in a local village
- Participate in traditional Yapese culture

SPIRITUALITY

- Regular faith-sharing and reflection
- Connection to the local Jesuit community for support
- Campus ministry opportunities

CONTACT US

We are accepting applications for the 2019-2020 school year. Interested and have more questions? E-mail volunteers@ychs.net Visit us online! www.ychs.net and www.facebook.com/YapCatholic

Yap Catholic High School was founded in 2011 by two American Jesuits as the first Catholic high school on the island of Yap. Today, YCHS is staffed by 2 Jesuits, 3 Americans (principal, college counselor, IT support), 4 local teachers and 3 volunteer teachers who are alumni of Bates College, Fordham, and Marquette.

